

“Catch Me Up”

by

Alexander Lee-Rekers

- A           What have you been up to?
- B           I'm studying. Studying again.
- A           Same thing?
- B           More or less.
- A           Changed a bit since you were there last, hey?
- B           The principle's the same. You?
- A           Me? Not studying.
- B           What are you doing with your time?
- A           Working. Mostly working. Oh: and I paint!
- B           You paint?
- A           Started painting one day. Bought some brushes, and just...
- B           I can't imagine you painting.
- A           It's been a nice change.
- B           Good.
- A           You're waiting for someone.
- B           I am.
- A           Sorry.
- B           It was nice to see you.
