

"It Happened"

by

Alexander Lee-Rekers

A           It happened.

B           What?

A           The thing.

B           Really?

A           Yep.

B           When?

A           Just now.

B           Finally.

A           I know.

B           I don't know what to say.

A           I don't know what to tell you.

B           How do you feel?

A           Not sure. Different, I guess?

B           "Good" different?

A           We'll see.

B           Yeah. We'll see.
