

Leaving

by

Alexander Lee-Rekers

- A We should go.
- B I'm almost ready.
- A Are you?
- B Give me a minute, and I will be.
- A I don't want us to get there late.
- B I don't want that either.
- A You know it is when you get there late.
- B I remember.
- A Is there a reason you don't want to go?
- B No reason.
- A It doesn't seem like you want to.
- B I'm happy to go.
- A I'll meet you outside.
- B Won't be long.