

"Remember"

by

Alexander Lee-Rekers

- A            Try to remember.
- B            I am.
- A            Please.
- B            I am trying.
- A            Do you remember what I said?
- B            I think...
- A            What was it that I said?
- B            I remember what I said.
- A            Oh?
- B            I remember that I said it was cold.
- A            You did.
- B            And we both wore coats. With scarves.
- A            Did you remember that, or did you guess?
- B            I'm not sure.
- A            Do you remember my name?
- B            Your name?
- A            Do you remember yours?