- A           Hi.
- B           Hello.
- A           I didn't expect to see you here.
- B           Thought it might be a nice surprise.
- A           Are you here to see me?
- B           Who else would I be here for?
- A           I wish I'd known.
- B           Then it wouldn't have been a surprise.
- A           Can I get you anything?
- B           No.
- A           What do you want?
- B           Guess.
